A monthly publication of St. Alban's Episcopal Church

Dear Parishioners

July is here and we finally are able to welcome Deacon Jonathan Duncan and his wife Elizabeth to St. Alban's. Please join us for a reception on Sunday, July 6th in the Parish Hall at 9:15 a.m. As I have stated before, while Deacon Duncan will participate in all the ministry of an ordained Deacon and later a Priest, his main focus will be on family and youth ministry at St. Alban's. It will take awhile for him to become acquainted with everyone so please be free with information about your name and what ministries you are involved in here at St. Alban's. He will find it very helpful. I also want to thank our anonymous donor who has made this ministry possible. As I have said before again I say that this is an area of ministry we are very weak in. It is my hope that Deacon Duncan with your help will be able to grow and better minister to God's glory for our family and youth.

Please also mark your calendar for Saturday, August 9th at 10:00 a.m. On this day, Deacon Duncan will be ordained a priest in the one, holy, catholic and apostolic church of God. It will not only be a special and exciting day for Deacon Duncan but also for St. Alban's. There will be incense at the Ordination so I am giving notice for those that suffer from allergies. A reception will be in the Parish Hall following the Ordination to the Priesthood. I hope you will help and be here for this very special occasion. This is all very exciting!

I want to thank all our Volunteers, those who donated and youth that participated and attended our VBS this year. We had 43 children participating in this exciting week of fun and learning about our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. “Power Lab” used exciting “experiments” to help our children learn. I even was given a demonstration of walking on water---yes they did it as long as they kept their eye on the Lord. Take your eyes off the Lord and they sunk. Balloons with fears written on them were pushed down into water and guess what? They came to the surface again. This demonstrated that our fears keep coming to the surface no matter how deep we bury them. Only Christ can take these fears away. It was a great time and thank you for supporting this fantastic ministry for our children.

Summer is here and attendance is showing that we are a vacationing group. I want to thank Stephen Vinson for writing such a superb article on stewardship for last month’s Legate. The politics at St. Alban’s are also showing up in our stewardship. There are those who do not want to stay with the Diocese who have cut their support down to one dollar a week. There are those who cut their pledge in half. There are those who have pledged and not given any because of the stand your Rector has taken. And I would be amiss if I did not say there are a few that have kept their pledges and giving. As such, we had to dip into our line of credit to pay quarterly bills. I know that many of us are also feeling the crunch of the economic slow-down and the rising price on necessities. We too are feeling the crunch at St. Alban’s. We are looking at possibilities at the present to see what can be done in this area. This will be painful in that most of our income goes to meet salaries for ministry and maintaining our buildings. There are very few extras given to luxury around St. Alban’s. The finance committee will be giving a report on Sunday, July 13th at 9:15 in the Parish Hall to let everyone know where we are and what the possibilities are. I hope everyone will be in prayer about this situation and ask God to grant us courage, faith and trust in Him about what we can do together to face this challenge that has been given us.

The reception for Deacon Duncan and Elizabeth and the presentation by the finance committee will disrupt the 40 days of Discernment Bible Study. It will resume on Sunday, July 20th at 9:15 in the Parish Hall. A number of people said they will be traveling but would like the material. The Bible Study material will be available week by week in the Parish Office for those who would like to do the study on the road.

As I write this, we are still in negotiation between the General Contractor and the Insurance Company on the repairs for the storm damage. Our development committee has been working hard on choosing flooring material for the Narthex; paint color for the outside of the Church; receiving bids for the new lighting fixtures in the Church; as well as a host of other items prescribed in our Capital Campaign. I think it may be one of those situations where everything will start at once and we will have tons of work being done in multiple stages.

But the main work of the Church is to teach, live, and proclaim the saving grace of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. As your Rector, my family and I will be going off to teach English to French teenagers and to share our faith in Jesus Christ with them. We will be back for a short time then off on vacation. I leave you in good hands of our Assistant Rector, Senior Warden and our two Deacons. Keep them on the straight and narrow for me.

In Christ,
Fr. K+

Announcements and Coming Events

St. Alban's Bookstore and Gift Shop will be open on Sunday mornings in July but will be closed on weekdays. Regular weekday hours will resume on August 4th.

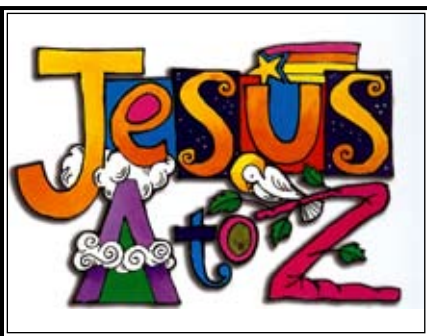

New books have arrived in the Bookstore! Come by on Sundays to find interesting selections for summer reading. Here is a sampling from many to choose from:

The Words of Jesus: A Gospel of the Sayings of Our Lord, with reflections by Phyllis Tickle. This well-known Biblical scholar has organized the words of Jesus according to the audience to whom they were spoken. For example, you will find Words of Public Teaching, Words of Healing Dialogue, Words of Post-Resurrection Encounter, and more, accompanied by her reflections.

God Seekers; Twenty Centuries of Christian Spiritualities, by Richard H. Schmidt. A panorama of holy writing, worthy of study, from 32 Christians from the second century to the present. Each chapter is followed by a set of questions for personal reflection or discussion.

The Oxford Guide to The Book of Common Prayer; A Worldwide Survey, edited by Charles Hefling and Cynthia Shattuck. "A comprehensive resource, this collection of expert discussions helps us learn what Anglicanism has given to the literary heritage of Christianity and culture alike," from its original 1662 text to its many worldwide transformations.

Jesus A to Z, by Michael O'Neill McGrath. A brightly illustrated, lighthearted alphabet book for young children, each letter features the use of alliteration and a Bibleverse reference. For the adults reading to children, a concluding section poses questions for each letter that can promote discussion with the child. The author/illustrator is an Oblate of St. Francis de Sales.

Saturday Book Club continues in July with the book The Reluctant Healer: One Woman's Journey of Faith by Emily Gardiner Neal. We meet on the third Saturday of each month at 9 am in the church parlor. A review of the book states:

Emily Gardiner Neal was a skeptic in the early 1950's and a professional journalist. Strongly affected by witnessing a healing service, she felt compelled to investigate the phenomenon. She began to talk with those who were healed, their pastors, their families and their physicians. In the process, she began honestly to face her own apprehension, subsequently writing A Reporter Finds God Through Spiritual Healing. Her journey of faith and her participation in the healing ministry of the church for the next thirty years are recorded in her additional six books- all out of print. An anthology of those books has been skillfully written by Anne Cassel to share the essence of her timeless stories and her extensive research. The book, formerly titled Celebration of Healing is scripturally sound. The Episcopal Healing Ministry Foundation had sponsored the reprint of this work entitled The Reluctant Healer.

Come and join us as we read and discuss this work written by a woman who began her journey as an agnostic and eventually was ordained to the diaconate in the Episcopal Diocese of Pittsburgh in 1978.

The book is available through St. Alban's bookstore. For more information please contact Alison Coombs 817-496-5602. This study is sponsored by Order of Saint Luke.

Canterbury Ministry for the UTA community and all young adults is meeting at 7pm on the first Sundays of the month during the summer in the Canterbury House at the corner of S. Davis and Fourth Street. All are welcome. Dinner is provided. Our website is utacanterbury.blogspot.com.

Camp Crucis Parish Campouts and Picnics

Camp Crucis will be working closely with the congregations of the Diocese of Fort Worth to set church campouts and picnics. St. Vincent our cathedral is leading the way with a church family campout. We have reduced the prices to encourage families to tent camp or stay in one of our air-conditioned cabins. Tent camping is $5 per person per night with a maximum of $15 per tent per night. Cabin rates are $50 per night for up to 14 people. Hiking, fishing, sports equipment, and court use are free. Swimming, horseback riding, and bounce houses can be added for an additional fee. Our picnic special includes the use of DeWolfe hall and the pool use for $5 per person. These specials are available for churches only. We would like to say thank you for your support of Camp Crucis and help you strengthen your Christian community. Come and enjoy God's garden in Granbury.

Daughters of the King – St. Teresa of Avila Chapter

The Daughters of the King is a prayer and service group of women at St. Alban's. We have been active for about two years. All members are enthusiastic about their calling. We meet on the second Saturday of each month at 11:30 a.m. in the conference room. You are invited to visit our meeting anytime.

Our services, at present, include keeping white vestments clean and a prayer shawl ministry. A new activity that we are beginning is the Encouragement Card. You will find in the pews a blue card for you to send a message of encouragement to someone in the church. Just put your card in the alms basin and we will send it on. Thanks to Peggy Pate and Sara Beall for this new ministry. —Gloria Lawley, President

Tales From the Loft

Since as of June 10 we only need $6,710. to be able of sign a contract with Ross King for another matching organ case, I thought I would review the process for finishing our organ project. Ross will need to take out the original case and all the pipes it contains before he can install the new matching case. At that point, we will only have the pipes sounding in the north case which are playable only on the lower keyboard. This will limit the repertoire played by the organist and sung by the choir. We will need to fill the new case with pipes as soon as we can.

Ross will be able to rescale and revoice some of the original pipes and put them with additional new ones to make some of the ranks for that new case. Of course, this will happen as we get money needed to sign the various contracts. $172,658.44 has been given and spent already of this project. The following is a listing of the still needed work with costs:

New swell case with shutters (we currently have $31,305.00)	$6,710.00
Pedal principal (will be seen in the front of the new case)	$11,915.00
Octave (a coupler)	$259.00
Gedeckt 16'	$4,018.00
Principal 8'	$390.00
Chimneyflute 8'	$9,311.00
Viola 8'	$9,615.00
Celeste 9'	$5,698.00
Principal 4'	$6,530.00
Flute 4'	$8,162.00
Nazard 2 2/3'	$7,233.00
Blockflute 2'	$4,577.00
Tierce 1 3/5'	$5,256.00
Larigot 1 1/3'	$259.00
Trumpet 8'	$11,224.00
Oboe 8'	$9,685.00
Tremulant	$1,484.00
Mechanical parts - Swell	$3,749.00
Gedeckt (coupler) 16' on pedal	$259.00
Gedeckt (coupler) 8' on pedal	$259.00
Contra trumpet (on pedal)	$11,506.00
Trumpet (coupler)	$259.00
Chimes	$7,447.00
Zimbelstern	$2,805.00

Total $128,610..00

Contributions for this part of the organ made back in '02 and '03:
$590.00. $128,020 will complete our project.

If there is a specific rank of pipes you want to purchase for the church just let me know. If you will the lottery just call me.

Sunday School Corner

We are not trying to please men, but God who tests our hearts...Be joyful always; pray continually; give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus. 1 Thessalonians. 2:4, 16-18

Whew! VBS Power Lab was a swirl of 'powerful' fun and learning and evidence of answered prayers. This year we were blessed to have families from our neighborhood, your grandchildren, your friends, and plenty of students and volunteers! Thank you for being flexible and in many cases, rearranging your schedules to participate. As always, VBS is a wonderful evangelical tool and outreach ministry. Please continue to pray that the spiritual seeds planted during this week will continue to be nurtured and grow and produce fruit for God's kingdom.

Thank you to the following parishioners for your generosity in donating snack items, monies, decoration items and props for our lessons. Mike and Susan Kennemer, Alison Coombs, Kay Popp, Elizabeth McPherson, Sue Hogg, Carolyn Dobbs, Jan Eden, Meredith Killingsworth, Michael Silvester, Cheryl Romilly Smith, Sara Beall, Sara Pfiester, Ty Head, Anna Lou Nix, Carolyn Tieman, Sharon Fielder, Marjorie Cabe, Lynette Romero, Ada Eigbobo, Ethel Momah, Janie Lundy, Elly Ferbend, Ann Cavender, Peggy Pate, Mary Helen Rogers, Carolyn Newby, Sheryl Fritz, Don Wheaton, Doug Hosea, Paul Kino, Brad Warmann, Karen Cannon, Jodi Gittiban, Rae Huffstetter, Laura Zack, Aurelia Green, Shirley Parker, Kathy Wichterich and anyone else who brought something unnoticed and all who blessed us with words of encouragement. "It takes a whole village." You are appreciated. Your items may be picked up in Room 3.

Many thanksgivings for all 42 of our participants and their parents and guardians who ensured their registration and attendance. This ministry couldn't take place without you and your prayers, and especially the dedicated VBS volunteers who helped decorate and/or were leaders and helpers for our five day event: Stephen Beall, Sara Beall, Sara Cannon, Russell Cannon, Alex Parker, Cathy Souders, Jana Shepard, Kendall Hadawi, Madison Wichterich, Haley Glidewell, Hanna Glidewell, Didi Eigbobo, Abi Eigbobo, Michael Seaton, Allison Gittiban, Gretchen Hosea, Becky Brown, Fr. Matkin, Melisa Matkin, Sue Hogg, Staci Kino, Kenzie Kino, Ian Brock, Richard Stolley, Kay Popp, Elizabeth McPherson, Marjorie Cabe, Steven Romero, Julia Pope, Fr. Kresowaty, Janie Lundy, Dan Lovato, and Taylor Warmann. A huge thanks to Girl Scout Troop # 1852 whose leaders, scouts and family members came early and stayed late to get the job done: Colleen Weber, Henry Weber, Amy Ryan, Liz Leatch, Dani Green, Nikki Anderson, Stephen Schonert, Barbara Schonert, Mrs. Weber, and Sheila Green.

Thank you for your continued prayers for the ministry of Christian Education. Please prayerfully consider taking a turn, teaching Sunday school during our next school year with a team of 3 to 4 teachers. It will be here before we know it. Until then, blessings for a restful summer.

Warmly yours in Christ,
Susie Wheaton

Kroger Rebate Program

Kroger has changed their organization rebate program, now calling it the Kroger Neighbor to Neighbor Donation Program, replacing the Kroger Share Card. This program runs from May 1, 2008 through April 30, 2009. For those of you with Kroger Plus cards who used the Share Card each time you shopped, this program will be much easier. Please take a copy of the Customer Letter located in the Narthex on the Visitor's Table, and the next time you stop at Kroger have the cashier scan your Plus card and then the barcode in the Letter. This will enroll your Plus card in the Neighbor to Neighbor program for the entire year, and St. Alban's will receive a portion of $1,000,000 that Kroger will donate to all the enrolled charitable organizations. You will no longer need to have the Share Card scanned each time you shop. St. Alban's will receive a portion of the $1,000,000 based on the percentage of our purchases compared to the other charitable organizations.

Stewardship Stimulus

Here is a boy with five small barley loaves and two small fish, but how far will they go among so many?
John 6:9

What will you do with your tax stimulus check? Pay bills, spend, save, give? Whatever you decide, you cannot really go wrong. Thanks to Congressional action in February, many of St. Alban's members will or may have already received their tax stimulus check. Rebates range from $300 to $1200 or more, depending on the family situation.

Some will welcome the tax rebate check and use it to pay bills, or may save some for the next "rainy day." For others, the check comes as an unexpected blessing they may choose to spend on one thing or another. Those who are charitably-minded may want to make a difference by sharing a portion of the windfall with groups that reflect their beliefs.

If you receive a tax rebate check, carefully consider your personal needs first. Then, if you are among those who might otherwise invest your rebate for the future, please prayerfully consider sharing all or part of it through an investment in St. Alban's ministries to others. As when Jesus fed the multitude with just five loaves and two fish, we are reminded that God takes our gift, no matter how large or small, and multiplies the impact. Remember: the amount of your rebate check is not subject to income tax. Then, when you itemize deductions on your 2008 tax return, you may be entitled to a tax deduction for the amount of your gift. This way you will enjoy another "rebate" as your deduction provides you with tax savings!

Oxford Movement Day Of Prayer

175th Anniversary Of The Oxford Movement by Robert Beaken

In 1833 the Church of England was startled by the Oxford Movement. The spark which ignited this powerful religious reawakening was the proposal of the Whig government to suppress half the Anglican bishoprics in Ireland and to re-dispose their incomes, without first consulting the Church. A group of clerical dons at Oxford, of whom John Keble, John Henry Newman, Richard Hurrell Froude and Edward Bouverie Pusey are the most well-known, took grave exception to the Whigs' proposals. They believed that the Church is a divinely-founded society, with Jesus Christ at its head, and that its reform was nothing to do with a secular Parliament. Their campaign of opposition was inaugurated with an assize sermon preached by Keble in the university church of St Mary in Oxford on 14 July 1833, in which he called Whig government's planned legislation 'National Apostasy.' The Oxford dons next wrote a series of Tracts for the Times, examining aspects of the theological crisis created by the government's action, which they had delivered to every parsonage in England.

The Church of England, they taught, has passed through the Reformation, but it is not simply of the Reformation. It is not a Protestant Church (the word Protestant never appears in the Prayer Book, nor in any Anglican formularies), but it is a reformed catholic Church, a subtle but significant difference. The Church of England is the historic catholic and apostolic Church of England. It is part of the wider Church of Christ – a claim made on the title page of the 1662 Prayer Book – cleansed of medieval abuses and unscriptural accretions in the sixteenth century, but in all other respects in continuity with what went before. They pointed out that the Church of England has retained the historic three-fold ministry of bishop, priest and deacon; her bishops are part of the Apostolic Succession; her priests by their episcopal ordination are identifiable with Roman Catholic and Eastern Orthodox priests, and exercise the same priesthood; through them, her faithful are assured of a valid sacramental ministry.

The leaders of the Oxford Movement were highly intellectual and very serious men. They believed the Church of England to be under threat, and they sought to raise the whole tone of her life and witness. For them, what mattered above all else was personal and corporate holiness; and, because holiness may only grow upon a foundation of truth, they were especially concerned with doctrinal purity and theological orthodoxy.

The Oxford Movement teaches us that all truth ultimately comes from God: Jesus Christ himself said "I am the way, the truth and the life." Christian truth does not depend for its validity upon the opinions of individual Christians at any one time. Something is true simply because God makes it true and reveals it to us, and for no other reason. If all Christians decided to reject some aspect of Christianity, this aspect would not thereby become untrue because of their rejection of it. Nor, if all Christians decided to believe in something new or decided to amend some old aspect of Christianity, would it therefore suddenly become true because of their new belief. God does not – indeed, he cannot – contradict Himself. Christian doctrine and moral teaching that were true in A.D. 33 and A.D. 1833, remain true in A.D. 2008. They cannot have become false by reason of their contradicting current values and ideas, and because some people find them difficult.

The Oxford Movement did not go unchallenged, but it proved to be the most important religious reawakening in England during the nineteenth century. The renaissance of spirituality, theology, scholarship, liturgy, music, art, architecture, and the revival of religious orders and communities (monks and nuns), which the Oxford Movement began in the Church of England goes under the name of the Catholic Revival. To this day in the early twenty-first century, there is not a parish church in the Anglican Communion that has not been affected by it in some way or other. More information is available at: www.oxfordmovement.org.uk.

On 14 July 2008, the 175th anniversary of John Keble's Assize sermon, Anglicans throughout the world will observe an hour of silent prayer. We will give thanks for the rich inheritance of the Oxford Movement. We will also pray for the future, seeking to discover God's will and fulfil his purposes for us in our own lives, churches and communities. An hour of silent prayer will be held at noon on July 14th at St. Alban's Episcopal Church in Arlington, TX. We invite you to join us for this special time with the Lord.
