Dear Parishioners

As summer comes to an end most of us settle into a routine. Children are back in school. Our young adults have started their college schedules. And our vacation time is a beautiful memory that we might like to live over again. But there is a routine that we should not neglect--our education and knowledge in the Lord.

If we want a friend, we have to make time and learn about the person we would like to have as a friend. If we want to excel at work, we have to make time and learn all we can about what it is we want to do. If we want to know the Lord, we have to make time, learn, and commit ourselves to spending time with Him.

We are offering two adult classes on Sunday in addition to all the other opportunities we have available. First we are offering Living the Good News. Living the Good News is a class on the Sunday Scripture reading.

Our second class for adults will be taught by Waller Poage. It is called "The Bible in a Nutshell." This study will include: History of the English translation, how each portion became canonized, organization of the Old Testament and the list goes on and on about what you can learn about this valuable Book we call God's Word.

Confirmation Classes will begin on Tuesday, September 1st at 7:00 p.m. If you would like to learn more about your faith and the Church please join us. Our Bishop will be at St. Alban's on Sunday, October 4th for his visitation and Confirmation. Classes will run for five weeks on Tuesdays. There is planned one Saturday class on September 19th. Both young adults and adults will be combined in this class as we learn, strengthen, and confirm our faith in our Lord Jesus Christ.

You should take a look at our Sunday School Rooms! Our classes for our youth have been moved upstairs where the classrooms are newer, larger and have been painted. Wow! The team who painted the classrooms made them absolutely fantastic and inviting. Our young children will still be down stairs in Room 1 and use Room 2 for indoor activities when the weather will not permit outside activities. We would also like to renew and refresh our nursery so those with toddlers and babies will feel they are welcoming and inviting for our children.

Our Monday Book Study will begin on September 14th following the 10:00 Eucharist. Fr. Duncan has chosen a classic for the book study. Dante's "Inferno" is the hot topic for study. Other weekday educational opportunities for your consideration are Wednesday morning Bible Study or Wednesday evening Bible Study. Each of these Bible Studies are determining its course of study and invite you to join them.

More education opportunities will be offered throughout the year. For parents, Jon and Jana Stutler will be kicking off a program called "Stand Up Parenting." This course will start with an informational session on Saturday, October 10th. In the spring, there will be a parenting class based upon Scripture. I am already excited about our Lenten program as it is being organized. So watch for details on how you can be a part of these exceptional educational opportunities.

I would like to thank our Junior Warden for all his help overseeing many of the projects that are coming to fruition. Our new pews are in and the floor has been refinished. There are now areas available for those with wheelchairs or walkers. Soon if not already here by the writing of this will be new chairs for the Sanctuary. I am looking for one or two individuals that have the gift of making needlepoint for the seats by the pulpit and the lectern. We would like to match the seating with the color that is already available in the communion rail kneelers. If you would like to take on this project, please let me know.

Our second organ case with all its numerous ranks of pipes is in process of being installed. It will be exciting to hear all the new and wonderful sounds. I have already been promised we will have some concerts on our new enlarged organ. Before this we have had to remove the old risers, remove years of storage of things since the case is larger and refinish the floor in the choir loft which had been stripped years ago but never refinished. Soon we will have to rebuild the risers and have a wonderful space for our outstanding choirs.

The Memorial Garden is almost finished with the first phase. Sprinkler system, some grass, the columbarium, and fountains working are all that are in process. We look forward to the completion of this first phase.

As I report each month, we have not had to borrow from our capital funds to pay for operating costs. We have had some slim months during this summer where income has not met expenses but not to the point of having to borrow from the capital campaign. Thank you for your continuous generosity. If you are behind or would like to add to your giving, it would be appreciated to continue to close our deficit budget.

Please continue to turn in your responses to: "What do you believe will further St. Alban's to do what God has called us to do and be?" We will collect your responses through the end of September. Also get your pets ready for their blessing. We will have Blessing of the Animals on Saturday, October 3rd at 10:00 a.m. in the Parish Hall.

Hope everyone has had a wonderful and great summer. We look forward to seeing you back if you have been on vacation. There are great opportunities for you to learn and grow more in your faith and understanding. If you missed our Rally Day, please pick up a "Come, Belong, Become" booklet and call today the ministry or ministry you are called to participate in. Come help St. Alban's be all that God has called us to be.

In Christ,
Fr. K+

Note From the Editor

Welcome back from summer vacations! I hope this issue finds you well rested and ready to face another fall, especially for parents as your children start a fresh year of school. As you can see by the news this month there are great things going on here at St. Alban's from improvements to our parish building to great new items at the Bookstore to a whole new year of Christian Education, not to mention a ton of music news. Be sure to read it all!

Again, suggestions and feedback via email to newsletter@saintalbans.org are always welcome. As always, the newsletter is viewable as a PDF on the St. Alban's website.

Yours in Christ,
Anna Sparkman — Editor

Spotlight on Christian Education

*Oh, Lord, prepare me to be a Sanctuary pure and holy, tried and true.
With thanksgiving I'll be a living
Sanctuary, for You.*

As we begin a new 'school year' in ministry, one is drawn to consider our goals and hopes for those we serve on the Lord's behalf. This summer as Gretchen, Sara, and I visited other churches, we saw these lyrics printed on a large space that contained images of beautiful, stained glass windows, like those in Naves around the world. These lyrics have remained in my mind and heart and in my singing, as a prayer. I realize it is my hope that the fruit of our Sunday morning Christian Education would be to prepare each child and student's heart and mind to be a living sanctuary, a consecrated place where sacred is kept...where Truth is stored away, for 'keeps'. Do you remember that childhood expression? "This is 'for keeps'".

This is our prayer as we welcome your families Sunday, September 13th, promptly at 9:15am – 10:45am to our freshly painted, exciting spaces: PreK-K (older 3's –Kinder) will meet in Room 1, downstairs, across from the Library. Early/First Communion will meet through November 22nd in Room 8, outside, in the Children's Liturgy space. First through Third Grades will meet upstairs in Room 23. Fourth through Sixth Grades will meet in Room 26, upstairs. (Notice: First – Sixth grades meet upstairs in a new space!)

Teenagers will be meeting in Room 12, downstairs, in their freshly updated Youth Room.

We will have two offerings in our Adult Classes: Living the Good News, a study of the Sunday readings will meet in Room 4.

And, The Bible in a Nutshell: Come and ‘blow off the dust’ and join Waller Poague in a general discussion of the 66 Books, the history of the English translation, what Scripture is, the authors, and why Anglicans have come to rely on it. Both of these classes are meeting September 13th through May 16th.

Many thanks to our Sunday morning volunteers!! This would not be possible without you. At the time of this writing, we have the following ‘ministers’ committed: Mitzi DeShone, Richard Stolley, Sara Beall, Bettina Go, Caren Maneikis, Athena Seaton, Gretchen Hosea, Staci Kino, Doug Hosea, Waller Poage. We need 7 more volunteers to share the Sunday morning rotation. Are you willing to help with children and youth on Sunday morning? If so, please give me a call today.

Thank you for your prayers on behalf of Christian Education. And, many thanks to Dan, our sexton, who cleaned the rooms this summer, and to Sara Beall, Don Wheaton, Reagan, Gretchen, & Doug Hosea, and all who shared their gifts of time, talent and treasure to give our classrooms and hallways new life and interest for our children and youth! May the stories, prayers and fellowship found in our lessons and experiences be ‘for keeps’ in nurturing a personal relationship with Christ.

Warmly yours in Christ,

Christian Education Coordinator

A Few Notes From the Music Ministry

A Tune from Thomas Rinn:

As a teacher, the start of a new school year far over shadows the true turn over of the year in January and I find myself making my “new starts” and resolutions mid-August each year. With the summer holiday for the St. Alban’s Choir and Rally Day approaching as I write this, my activities at St. Alban’s seem to fall right in line with this schedule. As I plan for the year at St. Alban’s I am excited to look at how we may continue to expand the life of the music ministry in our church. As I reflect on my aspirations for the year I keep returning to the thought of how unique we are as Anglicans in our regard for the music of the church. While music has always held an important place in all churches, the Anglican church has been one of the few to hold on to the tradition. As a child of the Southern Baptist Church I remember being amazed at my first Episcopalian service. There was music everywhere! I was drawn to the Episcopal Church and have spent all of my adult life here because of my initial attraction to the music.

As Fr K continues to ask all of us the question of what we believe we are called to do at St. Alban's I reflect on our music ministry and wonder if it possible to make St. Alban's the place for church music in Arlington. Can St. Alban's be the place that people come to enhance their spiritual life with music? We have a rich history at St. Alban's and an active, growing music ministry. We have seen several additional music services in the past year and many invited musicians. As you have all seen, the organ renovation is well underway and I expect to see its completion during this season.

I am continually impressed by the talent level of our parishioners and excited each Sunday as I process through the church and hear the glorious singing in our congregation. I again extend an invitation to some of the wonderful musicians at St. Alban's to join us in the choir or our handbell ensembles. We would love to welcome you, worship with you, and ultimately enhance the worship experience for all who come to St. Alban's. I ask you to consider as you heed Fr K's call to examine the direction of the ministry of St. Alban's to consider sharing your talents with the music ministry. I think you will find a new dimension in your worship experience as an active participant in making music in our church.

By the time you read this, you will have experienced something different in our Sunday service music. We have decided to use some other settings of the service music (Gloria, Sanctus, Agnus Dei) during different times in the church year. The changes will help draw your attention to the changing church year, and perhaps help us to focus on these important parts of the service that can become monotonous after years of no change. For the remaining Sundays leading to Advent we will be using service music from the 1982 Hymnal by William Mathias. Mathias was leading English composer of the 20th century who made huge contributions to Anglican music. You may find it difficult to sing these new settings at first as any change takes some time to adjust to. I hope that as the choir leads you through this new music you will enjoy this change to our service. I find the Mathias settings extremely joyous and uplifting. If you find yourself missing what you are used to I assure you it isn't gone forever!

Thank you to all who contributed to the music ministry during our summer hymn festival. The funds we raise through this event do much to enhance our ministry. We will again be able to invite the woodwind quartet for Lessons & Carols as well as several other musicians throughout the year. We also continue to see donations to our Choral Scholars program that we began last year. I hope to expand on this program this year by bringing in up to three student musicians to our Chamber Choir. It takes about $2000 a year to support each scholar. I believe this is a worthy ministry to the students that also enhances our church worship and helps to continue the fine tradition of Anglican music. If this is a ministry you are called to support and would like more information please contact me at any time.

Tales From The Loft:

The final weeks of July saw the beginning of the second phase of our Organ Project. The original pipes were removed and some were reworked to be used with new pipes to form new ranks. The original case was also removed. The new case will be delivered the final week in August. When the pipes are in place, voicing and tuning will occur and then we will begin to hear new sounds. I am looking forward to that day!

There is still a need for money. We needed some electrical work done and that bill was paid this week. Also, a scheduled payment was made on the new case. The Organ Fund totals $56,067. We still need $41,980. to completely finish THE PLAN. Remember you can give money in memory of or in honor of someone and that person's name will be engraved on a plaque that will be mounted on one of the organ cases.

Organist Emerita

When I Was Sick, You Visited Me

Jesus said: "I tell you the truth, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did for me"

Matthew 25:34-40

Are you a little "ray of sunshine on a cloudy day" as the TV character House says? If you are interested in becoming a "ray of sunshine" please volunteer to be a hospital visitor. All it requires is a call to the Church office to see if anyone is in the hospital and a 30 minute visit just once every other week. You will find this a most rewarding ministry. Please call Keith Higham (817 460-0579) for more information.

If you have someone in the hospital or know of a parishioner that has been hospitalized, please call Sharon in the Church office at 817 274--7826.

Kroger Plus Shopper's Card Program

Once again, St. Alban's has joined the Kroger Neighbor-To-Neighbor program to take advantage of Kroger's generosity in supporting the community. Our parish will receive a portion of the $1,000,000 that Kroger will distribute next May based on the proportion of our purchases compared to the total amount all the participating groups spend at Kroger Food Stores. In order for your purchases to be applied to our total, simply have the cashier scan your Kroger Plus shopper's card and then scan this barcode the next time you shop. Your card will be linked automatically to our parish's account. Then, beginning July 1, 2009 and running through April 2010, every Kroger Plus purchase you make at Kroger will benefit St. Alban's. Remember, you only need to have this barcode scanned once, so cut it out now and take it with you the next time you shop at Kroger.

Thanks so much for your continuing support of St. Alban's.

Thanksgivings

The Legate now includes a special section for answered prayers and thanksgivings. Please email thanksgivings to newsletter@saintalbans.org and we will be happy to publish them.

Youth and Young Adults

20s & 30s Ministry:

Last month Caritas completed their study of Scott Hahn's Swear to God. It was a great study and hopefully we'll be able to do another book study in the future. Caritas will meet this month on Friday, September 25th so watch the bulletin for more details.

UTA - Canterbury House:

Our presence at the U.T.A. activities fair was a great success and gave us the opportunity to spread the word about Canterbury House among the students on campus. The Canterbury Association will meet this month on the 9th and the 23rd from 7:00pm to 9:00pm.

Youth Groups:

Teenage Youth Group:

Our teenage youth group is back for the Fall, meeting on Sunday evenings from 6:30pm to 8:15pm. During this Fall we will be doing a series entitled "Your Questions, God's Answers." This series will give us an opportunity to have some discussion about questions from and related to teens today. We begin at 6:30pm with snacks, and usually some ice-breakers or games, then a time with discussion, ending with candlelit Compline in the Chapel. Come out and bring a friend!

There will be a St. Michael's Conference Reunion on Sunday, September 27th. The time and location for the reunion are still being decided, so keep your ears open. The reunion will be open to returning Michaelites and any youth interested in the Conference.

Junior Youth Group:

The Junior Youth Group met on August 16th for a laid back time with a movie viewing. The Junior Youth Group also had a great time at their Pre-Rally Day Pool Party on August 29th. Special thanks go to the Hosea family for hosting that event for our youth. Our Junior Youth Group will be meeting this month on September 13th and 27th after the 10:30am Mass.

Monday Book Club: “Go to hell!”

Beginning September 14th the Monday Book Club will commence with a study of the Inferno, the first in Dantes Alighieri’s three part work, The Divine Comedy. Come join us as we study one of the greatest works of Western Civilization, and follow Dante’s journey through the circles of Hell. In each circle of Hell Dante gives us a picture of the true nature of sin in our lives. Our study will be in Room 10, immediately following the 10:00am Monday Mass. If you are interested in joining us there will be copies of the Inferno available in the Book Store.
