The Legate

A monthly publication of
St. Alban's Episcopal Church

Dear Parishioners

November is the month that begins to speak to us as family. We begin the month with the Feast of All Saints'. Yes the Virgin Mary, St. Joseph, St Cecilia, St Anthony; St. Alban and all the saints both well known and those not so well known. These are our family who have gone before us and we remember them and we join with them worshipping our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. But we know our family does not stop there. There are our brothers and sisters in Christ who are our family, friends and neighbors. These are the saints militant that strive to live a holy life here and now. And of course there are those who we loved and lived with us that have now departed this world. The Church expectant who are growing in God's grace and love. Waiting for that day when Christ will raise the dead and the living to the glorious company of the saints in light. We join with all of them at the Communion Rail expressing to God our praise and love.

November 2nd is All Soul's Day. We will remember those saints, those who we love and are special to us that have gone before and are awaiting the coming of our Lord. The Eucharist will be celebrated at 10:00 a.m. in the Church and at 6:30 p.m. in the Church. This is a time for us to join our family in prayer and praise for those we remember.

I want to thank Julie Todd and Kate Grigal for volunteering to be our co-chairs for our Kountry Kitchen. Ginger Capaccioli will be helping behind the scenes this year with her expertise from the many years of overseeing Kountry Kitchen. Thank you Ginger! We will be starting on Tuesday, November 10th and going through Saturday, November 14th. We need everyone's help that is possible. We need volunteers for serving, bussing tables, making soups, setting up and cleaning up, kitchen help, cobbler makers and all other various ministries needed to make this a success. Please do not hesitate to volunteer. Kountry Kitchen has been St. Alban's way of raising funds for outreach. The funds raised go out to organizations that help our community of Arlington. It is also the time when our Bookstore takes on its Christmas atmosphere. Remember our Bookstore is also a ministry for outreach. After operating costs, the funds raised by our Bookstore go to outreach in Arlington. Kountry Kitchen provides a way for our friends, neighbors, families and the community to gather at St. Alban's for a delicious meal and to shop at our Bookstore and have great fellowship. It is a way to donate to the many and various needs we see in the community in which we live. Let's help our family in need by supporting Kountry Kitchen. Remember to invite everyone you know!

Thanksgiving is a day for family and of course football. We give thanks to God for all the bountiful blessing of our lives: for our country; for our family; for the bountiful fruits of the earth; for our plenty. We will celebrate our Thanksgiving at 7:00 p.m. on Wednesday, November 25th. While we are anticipating our feasts on Thanksgiving Day, I hope you will bring in canned goods for our Advent Project when you come to the Eucharist. Our Advent Project has also been a way we share with those in need for the holiday season. Through it, we receive names to give food to those in need. We also give gift certificates as well as helping with electric or gas bills through the Advent Project. We will need your help, sorting, boxing and handing out the food so that others in need may have a blessed Christmas.

We will have our Advent Lessons and Carols on Sunday, December 6th at 5:30 p.m.. Please write it down on your calendar. We will also gather as a family for a roast pork and potluck dinner following in the Parish Hall. Please plan to join us as we anticipate the coming of our Lord during the Advent Season. Thomas Rinn, our choir director has already started on the music for Lessons and Carols. I know it will be a worshipful and beautiful experience.

Another way we celebrate our family at St. Alban's is through our Stewardship. We ask that everyone pray and then fill out a pledge card for our time, treasure, and talent. To make sure we continue to grow in our mission and ministry we ask everyone to participate. Not only do we need to meet our needs to keep St. Alban's operating well, but we need to continue to reach out and stretch ourselves to do what God is calling us to do. Our Stewardship Committee has done an excellent job explaining and expressing our needs and desires for St. Alban's. Please pray, consider carefully what God has done for you and then return your pledge for 2010 by no later than Sunday, November 22nd.

Many thanks also to Mitzi DeShone, and Rebecca Brown for preparing our children for their First Communion. They have done a superb ministry in preparing our children to understand the meaning and what we do during the Eucharist. Let us give our thanks to these youth who will be joining us for the first time to receive the Lord's Body and Blood with us as his family. Our First Communion Class will receive their first communion on Sunday, November 15th. Please congratulate our First Communion Class and welcome them to the Altar of our Lord.

As you can see many of our projects are coming closer to completion. Our new Organ Case is beautiful and now houses the swell for our Organ. We have new ranks of pipes and a few that are still on order as of when I wrote this article. We still have more pipes that are needed to complete the project but we have a great start. Thank You to Charlene Dorsey for all she has done in overseeing the project and picking up the broom, moving chairs, and keeping things in order during the expansion of our Organ.

Thanks to Sowing Seeds for a hard day of labor in the Memorial Garden. They dug up wild grass and weeds. They roto-tilled the ground, spread dirt and laid sod in the garden. Whew! It looks tremendous and will definitely keep the mud factor down during these rainy days we keep having. Thank you for all the hard work and for helping move this project further along.

Susie and Don Wheaton, Gretchen and Doug Hosea have been working hard to complete the design, painting and scripture verses for the classrooms upstairs and the hallway downstairs. This brightening up and beautiful design has created a welcoming and inviting atmosphere for our education classes. Thank you for this wonderful addition and all your hard work.

We still have a ways to go on some of the projects around the Church. Please keep them in your prayers and thoughts as we continue to move forward together as the family of St. Alban's.

In Christ,
Fr. K+

Note From the Editor

Correction: In last month's issue, the incorrect month was listed for the Saints, Readings, Birthdays and Anniversaries. The heading for those articles should have been October. My most sincere apologies for this misprint. This month's issue has the correct headers.

Again, suggestions and feedback via email to newsletter@saintalbans.org are always welcome. As always, the newsletter is viewable as a PDF on the St. Alban's website.

Yours in Christ,
Anna Sparkman — Editor

Stewardship

By now, you should have received your pledge packet from the Stewardship Committee. Please be sure to read through the Narrative Budget presentation to understand how your gifts provide blessings to all the groups and ministries around our parish and in the community. And take note of the “Dream Big” items our various ministries have needed for many years in order to enhance their growth. The Vestry is already at work planning for 2010, and by indicating your support for the parish at this time, they can fairly apportion funding to maximize the benefits. If you did not receive a packet in the mail, please call the church office or any Vestry member for your copy.

We are asking that you turn in your pledge card by November 22 to enable the Vestry to finalize a projected 2010 budget before the end of the year. The Stewardship Committee would like 100 percent participation, for a pledge from every member, no matter how small or insignificant you may think your amount is. Remember, no amount is insignificant in the eyes of God. It is important to give – by not pledging or giving, we miss out on an important aspect of Christianity, that of putting God and others ahead of ourselves.

45th Annual Kountry Kitchen

*...“An Arlington Tradition”
...“Every church in town wants Saint Alban’s soup recipes!”
...“We look forward to the beautiful bookstore decorations and wonderful gifts every year.”*

These are just a few of the comments we’ve heard in recent days. The long-standing Arlington tradition of Kountry Kitchen and the Christmas Gift Show is an event that is known all around town. Scheduled for Tuesday, November 10th thru Saturday, November 14th our Parish Hall will be transformed into a full service restaurant with homemade soups and cobblers, and a fabulous salad bar. The bookstore will be open from 10:00am - 3:00pm for shopping before and after lunch.

Proceeds this year will benefit Arlington Life Shelter. Let’s show our city that Saint Alban’s is committed to service and outreach in our community.

We need your help!

Prayers & Squares

St. Alban's Prayers & Squares quilt ministry had their first work day on October 3 - it was a big success. A large group worked on new prayer quilts and smaller prayer squares. It is a blessing how well this ministry has taken off at St. Alban's. Should you know someone who would benefit from a prayer quilt, please keep in mind the following:

- You must first ask that person if they will accept a prayer quilt.
- Fill out a Prayer Quilt Request Form which you will find on the counter in the narthex. Turn this form in to the church office.
- If there is a prayer quilt available, you will be contacted to choose one for the recipient (or one can be chosen for you).
- Arrangements will be made to have the quilt available at Saturday and Sunday services for parishioners to tie the threads while they say a prayer for the recipient. You are encouraged to be available to help with this part of the process.
- The quilt will be blessed by one of the clergy.
- You can then deliver the quilt to the recipient. If that person is out of town, we will mail it for you.

There are opportunities for everyone to help. If you don't sew, there is fabric to iron or measure, ties to attach, fabric to sort. We want to start a scrapbook to show the quilts we have sent. The Prayers and Squares group will meet on the first Saturday of each month at the church, 9am – noon. For more information, please contact Susan Kennemer at 817-851-1239 or swkennemer@gmail.com, or Marilyn Huff at 817-536-8259 or mhuff2@peoplepc.com

Coloring Contest!

Attention children and parents! The Legate is holding a few coloring contests over the holiday season. This month the drawing to be colored will be that of a cornucopia, a traditional symbol of Thanksgiving. The Cornucopia, or Horn of Plenty, is a hollow horn-shaped wicker basket filled with festive fruits and vegetables symbolizing the fruits of the harvest, fortune, and abundance.

The rules of the coloring contest are as follows:

- Only children aged 0-12 can enter
- Drawing can be colored in by any material suitable for paper (ie: markers, crayons, colored pencil, glitter, etc. Use your imagination!)
- Prizes will be awarded in three age categories:
 - Littlest ones (0-4)
 - Not so little ones (5-8)
 - Big kids (9-12)
- Entry forms will be available in the Narthex
- Entry forms must be filled out with the child's name, age, and telephone number
- Entry forms must be turned in to the Church Office or Newsletter Editor mailbox (next to the choir loft stairs) no later than Sunday, November 22, 2009. Late entries will be ineligible for prize consideration
- All entries will be available for viewing in the Narthex after the contest has ended

*The drawing above is not the contest drawing.

Spotlight on Christian Education

There are exciting things going on upstairs in Christian Education. We have hung two new canvas images; one in the back stairwell landing and one in rm. 24. Please go and check them out. We are also in the process of installing large scripture verses on the walls. Look for these in the near future! Is there a message there for you?

Of course, we would like to see many more children coming to Sunday School. We could also use a few more volunteers to alternate teaching a Bible story to the kids in the Big Room (rm 24), before we break off into small groups. If you can spare 20 minutes from 9:25 to 9:45, then we can use you. I promise the kids don't bite! A stage has been built in this room and it's our intention to make this an interactive and fun learning time with skits and videos and singing. Thank you to Richard Stolley who is doing a fabulous job with the kids on Sunday mornings.

We are compelled as Christian parents and grandparents to teach our children God's words. Not because we think it's a good idea, but because God commands it. God's true word in Deut. 5:7 tells us to "love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength. These commandments that I give you today are to be upon your hearts. Impress them on your children." If it were me, I'd go back and add an exclamation point here. And in Deut. 32:46 God's true word says "Take to heart all the words I have solemnly declared to you this day, so that you may command your children to obey carefully all the words of this law. They are not just idle words – they are your life." Not my words but God's words. How intentional are you about teaching our children?

The place to find out what God wants is in His Word. In John 1:39 and 1:43 Jesus said, "Come, ... and you will see." And "Follow me." The disciples of Jesus show us what "follow me" looks like. It looks like meeting Him face to face. It looks like obeying His words. It looks like spending time with Him. It looks like being intentional. Jesus wants to give us something and not take something from us, like our time.

Won't you come and see. I hope our Saint Alban's kids don't miss out on this blessing to learn about who Jesus is, so they too can have an intimate relationship that begins now.

In Christ,
Gretchen Hosea

A Few Notes From the Music Ministry

Tales From The Loft:

Last month I missed on when the pipes would be in place and playing. I'm hoping that as you read this all the pipes are in place and sounding. Currently, we still need $417. to complete the items needed for the Swell Case. Completing the Pedalboard will be next. Listed below are the additional ranks and couplers needed to complete THE PLAN:

Pedal Principal 8'	$12,494.
*Octave	$272.
*Gedeckt (SW) 16'	$272.
*Gedeckt (SW) 8'	$272.
Contra Trumpet	$12,065.
*Trumpet (SW) 8'	$272.
TOTAL	$25,647.

*Coupler plays a sound from a specific rank in the organ located on another manual

The last two items in THE PLAN to be added are Chimes and Zimbelstern. I can see the Chimes being used at the beginning of each service as a tune could be played on one of the keyboards sounding a Chime melody. The Zimbelstern is a "toy" used in the Baroque period very effectively with certain musical selections. Costs:

Chimes	$7,099.
Zimbelstern	$2,674.
GRAND TOTAL NEEDED	$35,420.

Some musical activities available in the metro-plex in November are the following:

11/08 Ken Cowan playing at 6PM - Highland Park UMC, Dallas

11/08 Double Bass Quartet Concert at 7PM - St. Mark's, Arlington

11/20 Gerre Hancock playing at 7PM - Church of the Incarnation, Dallas

11/22 Bradley Welch playing at 6PM - Highland Park UMC, Dallas

When you come to church listen for new and different sounds.

We will then be ready for the landscaping (approximately $10,000) to complete the project. Please consider making a donation in memory of a loved one or in thanksgiving for the blessings in your life. We want to complete this as soon as possible so we can all begin enjoying it.

Below is the list of people to be remembered in the Garden:

- The 3 crosses are in memory of Melton/Hitt Family; Zachary Aaron Mullins; Kevan Grant

When I Was Sick, You Visited Me

Jesus said: "I tell you the truth, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did for me"

Matthew 25:34-40

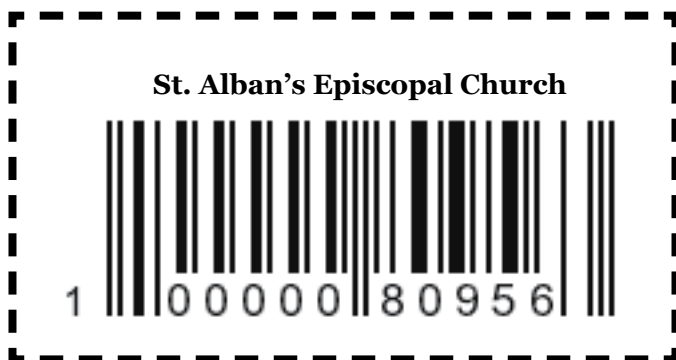

Are you a little "ray of sunshine on a cloudy day" as the TV character House says? If you are interested in becoming a "ray of sunshine" please volunteer to be a hospital visitor. All it requires is a call to the Church office to see if anyone is in the hospital and a 30 minute visit just once every other week. You will find this a most rewarding ministry. Please call Keith Higham (817 460-0579) for more information.

If you have someone in the hospital or know of a parishioner that has been hospitalized, please call Sharon in the Church office at 817 274--7826.

Kroger Plus Shopper's Card Program

Once again, St. Alban's has joined the Kroger Neighbor-To-Neighbor program to take advantage of Kroger's generosity in supporting the community. Our parish will receive a portion of the $1,000,000 that Kroger will distribute next May based on the proportion of our purchases compared to the total amount all the participating groups spend at Kroger Food Stores. In order for your purchases to be applied to our total, simply have the cashier scan your Kroger Plus shopper's card and then scan this barcode the next time you shop. Your card will be linked automatically to our parish's account. Then, beginning July 1, 2009 and running through April 2010, every Kroger Plus purchase you make at Kroger will benefit St. Alban's. Remember, you only need to have this barcode scanned once, so cut it out now and take it with you the next time you shop at Kroger.

Thanks so much for your continuing support of St. Alban's.

Thanksgivings

The Legate now includes a special section for answered prayers and thanksgivings. Please email thanksgivings to newsletter@saintalbans.org and we will be happy to publish them.

Youth and Young Adults

20's & 30's:

Caritas, our 20s and 30s ministry, had a great night of fellowship at the Duncans' home on Saturday, October 24th. That night we also began to discuss how Caritas could move forward into some kind of Christian outreach. Caritas will gather again on Saturday, November 21st for our 2nd Annual Thanksgiving Fried Turkey Potluck. Keep your eyes and ears open for more details about that event in the bulletin and announcements.

UTA - Canterbury House:

The Canterbury Association continues to meet throughout the month, on Wednesday evenings for mass, meal, and fellowship. In November we will meet on Wednesday, November 11th. If you are interested in making or donating a meal for Canterbury House meetings, please let me know.

Youth Groups:

It was wonderful seeing all of our teens and younger youth involved with worship on Sunday, October 25th, our Fall Youth Sunday. Please make sure to express to all of our youth your gratitude for their being here and taking part in the ministries of the church.

St. Alban's Annual Trunk N' Treat was also a great success. Our thanks go out to Tom Immke and our local Boy Scout troop for all of the work that they put into this year's Trunk N' Treat, especially their exceptional haunted house.

Teenage Youth Group:

Our Teenage Youth Group is continuing to meet on Sunday evenings for “Your Questions, God’s Answers.” This series gives us an opportunity to have some discussion about questions from, and related to, teens today. We begin at 6:30pm with snacks, and usually games, then a time with discussion, ending with candlelit Compline in the Chapel. Come out and bring a friend!

This month our Teenage Youth Group will have a bowling night on Sunday, November 15th at Alley Cats on Pleasant Ridge. We will meet there at Alley Cats that night at 6:00pm.

Junior Youth Group:

The Junior Youth Group met on October 25th and finished decorating their donation boxes for the church entryway. Just a reminder that these boxes are for collecting hygiene products such as soap, shampoo, deodorant, tooth brushes, tooth paste, etc. Once they are collected the Junior Youth Group will take a trip to donate these items to a local mission. Please be generous and remember to bring items for our boxes when you come on Sunday morning for worship. The Junior Youth Group will meet this month on November 8th and 22nd.

The Monday Book Club continues with the study of the Inferno, the first in Dante Alighieri’s three part work, The Divine Comedy. Come join us as we study one of the greatest works of Western Civilization, and follow Dante’s journey through the circles of Hell.
